After consultation it was determined by the meeting that to let the road build elsewhere would ruin directed to inform the syndicate that its proposition was accepted, and that the money would be forthcoming. Yesterday another meeting was held, for the purpose of raising the money. The meeting was well attended, and all of the advantages thoroughly discussed. Twenty thousand dollars was raised; but a few opposed the measure upon the ground of partiality, and asking that the road be commenced at this end of the line, which is rather a weak subterfuge. The remainder of the amount will likely be secured within three days, and, according to the offer of the syndicate, the LADIES contemplating buying a Sewing Machine should not fail to examine the new ones at Bowling & Wilson's, From Neill S. Brown Esq., of Tennessee, Mr. L. C. Bishop, Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in recommending to the public the "Ague Pills" sold by you. I used them in my family, and they gave rollef and effected permanent cure of chills, where all other remedies had failed. They certainly act like a charm, and anyone using them will find a sure specific.

Respectfully,
